Greetings during this Holiday Season to Cousins, Kin, and Other Readers,

Hopefully we all enjoyed a warm and loving Thanksgiving and are now looking forward to a memorable Christmas that leads to a happy New Year.

If you need a gift for someone special in your family, consider giving them a membership in HFFA. For only $25, they will be receiving our Newsletters and Journals and will have the opportunity to learn more about their (our) family heritage.

I bring membership up only two times a year. Please remember that our membership expires on Jan. 1, 2012. We each have to renew our membership by sending a $25 check to Membership Chairman

Marti Frye
308 Bellevue Plantation Rd., Lafayette,
LA 70503.

Please take care of this little bit of business before reading any further. I'll bring this up again in the February issue of the HFFA Newsletter. Thank you to those who join for multiple years. Right now some have renewed all the way through 2016 already. Thank You for your confidence in HFFA.

Since the last issue in early August we have done some traveling. On our way to Glacier National Park we stopped in Buffalo, WY to meet our cousin Marian Sarantha and her husband Dominic. She could not attend the Winchester Reunion so it was special to meet her for the first time. She is very active in DAR and helps many ladies learn their ancestry and establish their roots to qualify as members of DAR. We had a great time visiting them in their home. Marian and Dominic insisted that we park our motorhome in their driveway while we were there. Campground Sarantha was a fine place to stop on our trek west.

On another trip, Rose and I returned to Wardensville, WV to have lunch with J. Kenneth (Dutch) Frye. He brought cousin Martha Bradfield and her husband Grady with him. We'd never met them before.

After lunch we had hoped to be able to visit the Frye Family Cemetery in Intermont, WV. That is the cemetery that we were unable to visit on the Friday of the Winchester Reunion. Two big buses, 100 people, wet grounds, and being behind schedule did not lend itself to visiting the cemetery. This time, there were reports of hunters in the vicinity of the cemetery as well as wet grounds, and a steep slope so again, we were not allowed to visit. We had to pass up the chance to see the graves of my ancestors Henry Frye and Fanny Littler. Maybe some other time we'll get there as that cemetery is now on my "bucket list."

Without any intention, it appears this issue is about to highlight our cousin Janet Goforth. We have an interesting article written by her son Jim Stunkel who is a retired Battalion Chief with the San Jose, CA fire department. For many years he has been a volunteer with a worldwide group called Assist International. As I write this he is currently in Honduras. By the time you read his article he will likely be in another country on another continent. He has been in Romania, Afghanistan, Pakistan, Ghana, Djibouti, Ethiopia Uganda, Kenya, Tanzania, Rwanda, Mali, Senegal, Israel, Palestine, Hungary, Honduras, Mexico, Dominican Republic, Haiti, and Cuba. Assist International has done over one hundred projects in 65 countries. Jim is a member of HFFA.

The Janet Goforth theme will continue with the birth announcement of a great grandson. There is also a cute article written by Janet about life back in Winfield, KS.

As I close my column, please remember to renew your membership if it expires in 2011. Merry Christmas to you all and Happy New Year.

TREASURER’S REPORT

The Treasurer’s Books have never been audited so Ronnie Ellis of Austin, TX was asked to perform such an audit. We received his finished report on 9 Sep 2011.

In part, he writes: “Essentially, I reviewed each deposit and check, not only accounting for receipts and expenditures, but making common sense judgment on legitimacy and propriety. There were a few questions I had for clarification of his notations, but Mike provided all the information needed.

“Mike and those members who were delegated spending authority (Jon for journals, Norman for the reunion) were great in keeping receipts and documenting purchases.

“Not only has Mike maintained our books with mathematical accuracy, but his methodology is straight forward and easy to follow. I found no discrepancies and no hint of impropriety. I assure you and the board that our association’s books are in good hands. . . .I think an audit should be performed no less than every other year.”

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Many people don't like their names. How about Amanda Melviney Fitzallen Alexander Fry?

That is the name of one of our cousins. That's 5 names, 13 syllables, and a heck of a monogram. Of course when she married, she became Amanda Melviney Fitzallen Alexander Fry-Biggerstaff. What's one more name and three more syllables anyway?

A grandson of hers, P. E. Biggerstaff said that these are family names, not married names. He admitted that when he was young, he and the other grandchildren would sing a nonsense song using her names.

1. Heinrich Frey / Anna Catherine Levering
2. Benjamin Frye / Christena
3. William Fry / Rachel Speers
4. Henry Frye / Rachel Frye
5. Benjamin Fry / Elizabeth Fry
6. Amanda M. F. F. A. Fry / John Sanders Biggerstaff

When you look at her lineage, it's obvious that those names don't come from OUR side of the family, except the shortest one.

Another cousin with many names is John David Brian Hugh Lloyd Thomas Greeson. He is a cousin of Ronnie Ellis.

My real name is John Van Lawrence Speers, but my grandmother on my mother's side didn't like any of those names and called me Mike. Obviously, she had the clout in the family.

ASSIST INTERNATIONAL Help Around World

By James Stunkel

"Do you want to ride shotgun?" ...I immediately pictured a stage coach on a dusty road of the Old West. Hmmm. Tim was staring, waiting for an answer. I said, "like on a stage coach?"

Tim said "Yes ...but a shipment for Assist International, 40 tons of supplies to an orphanage in Romania, to make sure it arrives." Tim Reynolds was my Pastor and is my friend.

I didn't really know where Romania is. It was 1994, five years after Nicolae Ceausescue. and the world discovered the atrocious conditions of orphans confined in cages, yet some of these children had been rescued and Assist International was shipping supplies. The cause was good. My wife would be supportive, I was sure. I agreed to go. Just a 10 day commitment, after all.

My great-great grandparents were pioneers in the old west. I love the family stories, the adventures. My great grandmother was Hatti May Frye, a pioneer girl from Illinois to Tisdale, Kansas near the Oklahoma border in the 1870's. My mother, Janet Goforth, of Turlock, CA has blessed me with a magnificent sense of family legacy, but at the same time I am sure I may not be alone feeling as if born too late to be a part of the adventure of pioneering. As a professional firefighter my career did provide a dimension of adventure, but I could not miss the chance to go to Romania. I also could not have imagined where those 10 days would lead my life.

December 21, 1994, central Bucharest, the capital of Romania, it was winter and there was snow on the ground. I saw three little boys no more than 6 years old scramble into the underground pipe that carried sewage, it also held a concrete ledge providing a place for the boys to shelter during winter. A young woman had come from California for a brief visit, but was appalled at seeing the plight of orphans and she did not go home. She began rescuing children. The supplies were for her program but most of the supplies had been stolen to sell on the black market. The thief was the manager of the warehouse and fearful of being exposed as the thief he was - he backed down when we confronted him, retrieved the supplies and safely delivered them to the children. Riding shotgun was good. Today the work in Romania continues, and the lives of hundreds of children have been saved through the work of Assist International and our partners.

After my first trip to Romania I maintained a "state-side" role with Assist International. Then, after 9-11, I became increasingly sensitive to the idea that as Americans we have the ability, and therefore I believe, the duty to influence the world in a positive way. The idea is really born from Christian Charity without any political agenda. But the idea and my Christian faith were to be tested.

Early in 2002, I joined Tim on a series of projects to restore orphanages and hospitals while traversing mine fields in the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan, then to Africa, Latin America, Asia and the Caribbean. The challenges are great but so are the rewards. Although sometimes the recipients of charity may not trust our motives, and risks exist. We remain careful but determined and I have been blessed to volunteer for over fifteen years, annually donating my vacation to work abroad and loving every moment. Building homes, installing medical equipment and clean water systems, sometimes with teams of 30, 40, even 60 volunteers.

In 2010 I left my beloved career as a Fire Battalion Chief with the City of San Jose, CA to accept a full time position with Assist International. The 10-day commitment in 1994 has been a defining moment in my life. The adventures and the blessings continue today. I have no regrets. Only, that more people will see their own opportunity to become involved with international humanitarian services.

Assist International was founded in 1989 by Pastor Bob Pagett and his wife Charlene, inspired by two key scriptures: James 1:27 "Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress... and Matthew 25:40 "... whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me".

The strength of Assist International is in the power of partnerships of churches, service clubs, corporations and foundations that we draw together to meet the needs of the most vulnerable in our world. We have accomplished over one hundred projects in nearly 65 countries.

Assist International is a registered 501(c)(3) Non Profit Organization

And, now a story sent in by his mother.

A TALE OF A SNAKE

By Janet Goforth

Aunt Lula was #13 of 13 children. We lived in Winfield, KS, and Aunt Lula and Uncle Ray lived on a farm west and south of Stillwater, OK. Each summer, my sister (HFFA Shirley Bailey Coad) and I spent a lot of time with cousins Carol and Charlene on the family farm.

I remember my parents driving over the small hills and valleys approaching their farm and looking for that faint glow of the kerosene lamps which lighted their home. Then I knew we were almost there.

We had so much fun in that environment - so totally different from mine. We rode horses, pumped water from the well, swam in the pond. Gathering eggs from the hen house was new for me. The rodeo was short, because Uncle Ray caught us riding bareback on the calves. Not good.

Each day we would walk almost a mile to the mail box. Virgil was the mail man and we always took him some candy. Now how do I remember the name of that man??? Eventually, they got a wind charger which provided them some electricity for their house. The glow was gone.

One day we were sitting in the living room and saw a mother hen walk by outside with five baby chicks following her. A short time later we saw the mother hen again but this time there were only two baby chicks. That was when we saw a big copper head snake wiggle by. There were three lumps in it.

We ran and told Aunt Lula about the snake! She grabbed the hoe and killed the snake. We grabbed a sharp knife and slit it open. Out hopped three baby chickens, alive and well!

THE 17TH LINEBAUGH By Cheryl Van Cleave

I became interested in researching my ancestors while in my 30's, and compiled a lot of information from my ancestors. There were a lot of older people in the family and they had very good memories. I wrote down a lot of what they said.

Then I decided to get proof of the births, deaths, etc., and started writing to court houses around the country, sending in money to obtain birth & death certificates. Then I visited court houses, libraries, and cemeteries in Ohio and other states. At that time, they did not have copying machines and I wrote down everything by hand.

When I had collected a lot of information, I typed everything on the typewriter and used carbon paper to make copies for other people. It has been 30 years since I compiled that information and now am learning the Family Tree Program and Roots to key in more current information and verify my facts. I have joined the local genealogical society and have taken courses to update my skills.

The Linebaugh/Leinbach/Lineback Family had contacted my brother in Houston, so we joined the Linebaugh/Leinbach/Lineback Family Reunion. We belonged to a missing family member that was relatively unknown to them. From there, I found the Frye Family as these two families were connected through the marriage of Johann Friedrich Leinbach, b. 15 July 1703 in Hochstadt, Wetterau Germany and Amelia Elisabeth Frey, 1 July 1719 in Skipack, Montgomery, PA.

These two had seventeen children, of which many people, including me were born from this seventeenth child, Samuel Linebaugh. For some reason, these people are hard to find, and so are their records.

Since I retired two years ago, I have lost one of my children to a motor vehicle accident, had lung cancer and 11% of my right lung removed. I have moved to a new house and city and am currently living very close to three of my children and five grandchildren.

I have had to delay my progress on genealogy. But, life is good and the Lord continues to bless my family and me.

LINKS BOOK CD

Attendees of the reunions in Morgantown, PA (2000) and Mineola, TX (2007) were able to obtain the HFFA publication that we call the LINKS BOOK. Those of us who have a LINKS BOOK know that it is a wonderful research document. In recent years, HFFA Wil Frye put the information in the LINKS BOOK onto a CD.

Those CD's are available from Marti Frye. We received the following review from Joyce Rivera.

I was very satisfied with my Links CD. It was easy to use once I got the way it was organized down. I was slightly overwhelmed with the first look - so much information, but it took about 2 seconds to understand and in my opinion you couldn't do much better than that. I am so impressed at all the work that went into compiling it. Thanks to everyone involved!

Discovery and Beyond

We gathered around at Capon Springs to see the small site where Henry Frye first made discovery and claim to fame for the healing powers of the water that he gave his wife Fannie so long ago...

Many since have tested, studied and come to believe that there truly is something "special" about this little spring, which rises up from the depths of the earth to find its own harmony with nature...

With a whimsical wish, some of us did take a taste or two as well... perhaps hoping to feel a bit of those healing "powers" on our own afflictions or just to feel yet another "connection" to our past?

There were new connections as well to be made, new faces, new cousins and new reasons for gathering together in celebration of our family ties...

We came from all directions, each with our own objectives and each with our own journeys to travel. The thread that brought us together those few special days in May of 2011 was the "Frye" blood that has flowed and continues to flow through our veins...

Like Cedar Creek, it twists and turns passing down from one generation to the next with no sign of stopping. It carries on over the rocks and the current pulls it onward down the line... and we too even with our twists and turns... are carried onward down... down our "family" line...

THE LAWS OF GENEALOGY

1. Ink fades and paper deteriorates at a rate inversely proportional to the value of the data recorded.
2. Anything that could have burned, did.
3. The census taker with the clear handwriting and good ink never enumerated your ancestors.
4. If you find a well-documented, illustrious ancestor, you've probably made a mistake.
5. The document containing evidence of the missing link in your research invariably will be lost due to fire, flood, or war.
6. The spelling of your European ancestor's name bears no relationship to its current spelling or pronunciation.
7. The information you desperately need could be only found in the 1890 census.
8. The e-mail address that bounces is the one from a person who listed your exact names. If you find a working address, you aren't related.
9. The book you need is never indexed, or if indexed, doesn't include people.
10. The keeper of the vital records you need will have just been insulted by another genealogist.

PARAPROSDOKIANS

A paraproisdokian is just a phrase with an unexpected ending.

1. I asked God for a bike, but I know God doesn't work that way. So I stole a bike and asked for forgiveness.
2. Do not argue with an idiot. He will drag you down to his level and beat you with experience.
3. Going to church doesn't make you a Christian any more than standing in a garage makes you a car.

4. Light travels faster than sound. This is why some people appear bright until you hear them speak.
5. We never really grow up, we only learn how to act in public.
6. If I agreed with you we'd both be wrong

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Hello Family,
As the leaves fall around us and we approach our celebrations of Thanksgiving and Christmas, we should take a moment to reflect on the real meaning of Thanksgiving. The Pilgrims came to America to form a separate community where they could worship God as they saw fit. Through their extraordinary charter, the Mayflower Compact, they established just and equal laws for all believers and non-believers in their new community.

The Bible, being as modern as tomorrow, provided these revolutionary ideas. They recognized that everything is a gift from God – even our sorrows. Our Thanksgiving tradition is to honor God and thank Him for His blessings and His grace.

With the advent of Christmas, we need to acknowledge the real meaning of Christmas – the birth of Jesus Christ, who later provided the atonement for the sins of all mankind.

I look forward to staying in close contact with all the members of the Association in the coming new year. Please remember your timely submission of the annual dues for 2012; this nominal fee is what sustains our organization.

Happy Thanksgiving and Merry
Christmas to you and yours.
